'AD' VIGILANCE BODY WILL BE INCREASED

Heads of Thirteen Citizens' Associations Indorse Move Against False Advertising.

Having received indorsement from the heads of thirteen citizens' associations, the Retail Merchants' Association is now laying plans to increase its advertising vigilance committee to include a an address to the students of Maryland Agricultural College bodies. The purpose of the committee will be to eliminate false and misleading statements from all forms of advertising in the District.

At an organization conference of the merchants committee, and the presidents and secretaries of citizens' associations called by Chairman Joseph Berberich last night at the Raleigh, representatives from thirteen associations were present. While the majority of the citizens' representatives came uninstructed and were unable to act as official delegates, they unanimously indorsed in their individual capacities the purpose of the movement and commended the public spiritedness of the merchants' association in fostering the project. The motion for indorsement was made by William R. Harr, president of the Columbia Heights Citizens' Association.

A Big Problem.

Secretary Columbus, of the merchants' association, was directed to vertising and has been adopted in twelve States, and also to forward an outline of the plan under which the joint committee will be perfected. The plan is to have the committee consist of six merchants and forty-five delegates from the associations. A sub-committee would be constituted from as to advertising would be referred.

"This is one of the big problems of the day," said Chairman Berberich in outlinin githe plan for curbing misleading advertising. "It will do more public good than anything of similar nature that has before been attempted. We must protect the public if we want to continue to live on the public. Truthful advertising saves time and money of the public and brings better results to the merchant. False advertising handicaps the merchant who desires to give the public the truth."

A. J. Driscoll, of the Mid-City Citiand ten delegates, to whom complaints as to advertising would be referred.

ADVENTISTS OPEN WEEK OF PRAYER

Elder Evans in Letter Says Annual Service Is Needed More Now Than Ever.

Beginning today and continuing until next Saturday in more than 3.700 Seventh-Day Adventist curches throughout the world the annual week of prayer services will be held, a special program being followed in all the churches. Leading ministers of the denomination have prepared readings to be researched. prepared readings to be presented by those who conduct the meetings, after which the communicants will hold seawhich the communicants will have seen sons of prayer.

Elder I. H. Evans, president of the North American division conference, with headquarters in Takoma Park, in calling attention to this yearly custom has sent the following to the churches Prayer Needed Now. "If ever we needed the week of prayer is now. On every hand we see the clash and strife of nations; the strug-gie between capital and labor exists in every land; wickedness is stalking abroad; the most destructive convul-sions of uncontrollable forces continue to sweep away property and the lives of men; and amid it all, combinations of men are striving to better conditions by uniting their human strength to en-force by law what they call 'civic right-eousness.' Must Keep Open Channel. "In this time of stress and strain we need to pray. We must see that the channel between our souls and heaven is kept open, and that the Holy Spirit, has control of our lives. We must be victorious over sin. Habits which have long had the mastery over up must now long had the mastery over us must now be mastered. This can never be done by human strength. If God does not give us the victory through prayer and faith, we shall fail. Others than our-selves will walk the golden streets, oth-ers wear our crowns, and we be among the lost.

BIBLE SCHOOL:

2:30 a. m. Sunday, Eigin Smith, Supt.

Classes adapted to the needs of every member of the family from the sirallest child to the great-grandfather.

The Joy Bible Class, No. 16t, especially invites the attendance and co-operation of Christian men and women visiting the National Capital. Every Sunday morning at the close of the Bible lesson and before the opening of the Church Service, visitors, who favor the class by their presence, will be presented with prepared letters and cards for them to sign and send by mail to their friends, family, their own Home Bible School and Churches. These letters will endeavor to give much valuable information to the folks at home and keep them in touch with the activities of the Baptists and other Christian bodies in Washington and vicinity. These cards and letters will be supplied free of charge and ready for mailing, and each visitor will be entitled to as many copies as they can use to advantage. "COME WITH US, AND WE WILL DO THEE GOOD."
